The sessions will include: students presenting to students in the AM, hands on activities, action programs and presentations from environmental resource professionals in the afternoon. During lunch, enjoy talking with environmental professionals during Eco-Chat. There will be many exhibits to tour during registration and throughout the day. Lunch is included in your registration fee.

The 4th Indiana Youth Environmental Summit is being organized by 3 regional planning committees. Committee members consist of local Soil and Water Conservation Districts(SWCD), Solid Waste Management Districts(SWMD), Resource Conservation and Development (RC&D) offices, teachers, site directors at each school, and other educators interested in providing a quality summit for Indiana's youth.

The State Coordinating Committee consists of representatives from: Indiana Department of Natural Resources, Indiana Department of Education, Indiana Department of Environmental Management; East Central, Mideast, Kosciusko and Three Rivers Solid Waste Management Districts; Purdue Cooperative Extension - Marion County; Bradford Woods and Keep Indianapolis Beautiful, Environmental Education Association of Indiana

PLEASE CHECK OUT THE I-YES Website for registration forms and updated agenda's.
